Adam Mosley

Seen above giving a TED talk, Raising, Arming, and Unleashing your Compassion Monster | Adam Mosley | TEDxEHC

From the hills of East Tennessee to the Rift Valley in Kenya, Adam Mosley has had a life full of ups and downs. Over his 20+ year career, Adam has spent time as a corporate recruiter, the marketing director for a record label, executive director of a coworking space, and multiple rolls at churches large and small, including his pioneering work as Lead Pastor of Trinity Vineyard Church Nakuru, Kenya.

In his current role as Director of Global Business Development for Uzima Water Filters, Adam spends his days working with people around the world who are helping bring clean water to the global poor, one family a time. Please come out and give Adam a warm Rotary welcome.

Family of Rotary Event

Family of Rotary at the Braves Game!

If you find yourself in Hannut, Belgium, Stop in and say HI

Our very Rotarian, Benji Dobovsky was traveling abroad last month. He took the time to catch up with an old friend and Rotarian from Belgium. Jean-Paul welcomed him graciously and even had a banner on hand for the customary exchange.

Jean-Paul signed the back of the banner for us. It reads: "With all my friendship Rotarians."

Thank you Benji for representing Sandy Springs and taking the time to follow up with old friends.

It should be noted that Jean-Paul has a young son, Francois-Michel who has now become a Rotarian thanks to his fathers leadership abilities.
